Tobacco Control Policy Fact Sheet

Myanmar: Packaging & Labeling

Health Warnings/Messages Features

Smoked Tobacco Products
Type of Warnings	Pictures (Photos) , Text Warnings/Messages
On front and back of packages	Yes
% of principal display areas covered	75%
Rotation required?	Yes
Number of messages	5

Smokeless Tobacco Products
Type of Warnings	Pictures (Photos) , Text Warnings/Messages
% of principal display areas covered	75%
Rotation required?	Yes
Number of messages	5

Definitions of Key Terms - Alignment with the FCTC and its guidelines

	Aligns	Does not align	N/A
Tobacco Product	■
Outside Packaging and Labeling	■
Cigar Package	■
Cigar	■

Penalties

	Yes	No
Manufacturer	■
Importer	■
Wholesaler	■
Retailer	■
Other	■

Other Packaging and Labeling Requirements

	Required	Some Restrictions	Not Required	Uncertain	N/A
Health warnings required on unit packaging (e.g., packs)	■
Health warnings required on outside packaging and labeling (e.g., cartons)	■
Health warning text must be in the principal language(s) of the country	■
A requirement that warnings or messages may not be placed where they may be permanently damaged or concealed when opening the pack	■
A requirement that tax stamps or other required markings may not be placed where they may conceal warnings or messages			■
A requirement to display qualitative (descriptive) constituents and emissions messages	■
Prohibition on the display of figures for emission yields (including tar, nicotine, and carbon monoxide)	■
Plain or standardized packaging	■
Prohibition on misleading tobacco packaging & labeling including terms, descriptors, trademarks, figurative or other signs (logos, colors, images that directly create a false impression that a tobacco product is less harmful than other tobacco products)

Content of the Warnings/Messages

	Yes	No
Health Impacts	■
Advice on cessation (e.g., the benefits of cessation or steps to take to stop smoking)		■
Addictive nature of tobacco		■
Adverse economic and social outcomes		■
Impact of tobacco use on friends and family	■
Quitline phone number and/or website		■

Last updated: June 1, 2023