(2) Where any person fails to comply with or acts in contravention of such a direction then, without affecting any right to prosecute that person under this Act, the Secretary may make application, on notice, to the High Court for an order against that person and against such other persons or class of persons as may reasonably be necessary to compel the performance of or compliance with the direction and the Court may make such orders as it thinks necessary to prevent any contravention of this Act or, as the case may be, to bring to an end the matters complained of in the direction.

(3) Without limiting the powers of the High Court under subsection (2), the Court may -

- (a) require a person to pay money to, or reimburse the Ministry for, any actual and reasonable costs and expenses that the Ministry has incurred or is likely to incur in avoiding, remedying, or mitigating any adverse effect arising from the failure of the person to comply with a direction earlier made against that person under subsection (1) of this subsection;

Unless the Health Inspector has reasonable cause to believe that an offence under this Act is in the course of commission at that place, such power shall be exercised only during the business or operating hours of the place in question;

(b) In the course of such inspection or investigation -

(i) to examine, open, and test any equipment, tools, materials, packages or anything the Health Inspector reasonably believes is used or capable of being used for the manufacture, packaging, labelling, storage, distribution, display, advertising or promotion of any tobacco product;
